Arizona Corporation Commission Names Doug Little Interim Chair

Phoenix--The Arizona Corporation Commissioners named Commissioner Doug Little as the interim Chairman for the Commission. At a staff meeting, the Commissioners voted unanimously to have Little step into the role on January 5, 2016 to serve as the interim replacement for out-going Chairman Susan Bitter Smith who resigned from the Commission effective January 4, 2016.

The Commissioners agreed to hold an election for a permanent Chair once a new Commissioner has been appointed by the Governor to replace Commissioner Bitter Smith.

The Chairman sets the agenda and runs Open Meetings and serves as the public face of the Commission.

The next regularly scheduled Open Meeting is January 12th.
