Commission to Hold Public Comment Meeting in Lake Havasu City on April 18th Residents can Voice Opinions on UniSource Electric Rate Case

(Phoenix) Arizona Corporation Commissioners want community members to have their voices heard at a public comment meeting regarding the proposed UNS Electric rate case. That meeting will take place on April 18th at the Lake Havasu City Community Center/Aquatic Center.

UNS Electric, a subsidiary of UniSource Energy Services, provides electric service in Santa Cruz and Mohave Counties.

This is the Commission's fourth on-site public comment meeting. Commissioners held public comment meetings in Nogales, in Kingman, and in Lake Havasu City. Commissioners scheduled the upcoming April 18th meeting in response to the large turnout in Lake Havasu City at its March 31st meeting.

Chairman Doug Little, and Commissioners Tom Forese, Bob Burns, and Andy Tobin will all be present to hear residents' concerns.

The meeting starts at 6 p.m. on April 18th at the Lake Havasu City Community Center/Aquatic Center at 100 Park Avenue, Lake Havasu City, AZ.

Anyone can submit comments online at any time by going to our website at www.azcc.gov and clicking the "Submit a Public Comment for a Utility" link. You can also call (602) 542-4251 or 1 (800)-222-7000.
