Hello [REDACTED]

Attached to this email you will find a downloadable copy of your invoice. Please review and if you have any questions feel free to contact customer service at the numbers listed below.

Here is a link to the Arizona Corporation Commission so you can verify our company:

<https://ecorp.azcc.gov/BusinessSearch/BusinessInfo?entityNumber=L09681188>

When you arrive there you will find information about our company and see our rating with that government agency.

Please visit your website HERE

Click login at the top right of your site and a pop up box will appear that asks for an email address and a password, the following information will temporarily allow you access to your back office until you've had the chance to personalize that information with your mentor. Upon logging in you will see confirmation that your account is locked due to the past due balance and it will direct you to call us to bring your account current.

EMAIL: [REDACTED]

PASSWORD: [REDACTED]

You can easily copy and paste this information into each specified box to login.

Upon receiving your past due balance an appointment will be set with the mentoring department so that you can personalize your login credentials.

Again, thank you for your continued business, we look forward to helping you reach your financial goals.

Sincerely,
